

Responsible Gaming Education Week 2018

Employee Meeting Planner for

August 6 - 10

SUPERVISORS: Please use this information to inform employees about Responsible Gaming Education Week.

WHAT	This week, <insert company name> joins other gaming companies around the U.S. to participate in the American Gaming Association's Responsible Gaming Education Week.
WHY	Responsible Gaming Education Week provides an opportunity to showcase our daily commitment to responsible gaming programs and is an important part of our steadfast dedication to promoting responsible gaming.
HOW	Key Points to Share with Your Employees: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Take time this week to review our responsible gaming resources and activities and consider how you can share your knowledge to help guests, employees and the public understand the importance of gambling responsibly. Let them know that Responsible Gaming: More than a Pledge, It's Our Priority. • [Insert any activities or training opportunities being held on-property during the week that employees should know about.] How does <insert company name> promote Responsible Gaming? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • [Insert property specific responsible gaming policies and procedures. Some examples are as follows:] • We have a process to deny casino play privileges and access to credit, check-cashing, and casino promotions. • We display toll-free helpline numbers for problem gambling in our ads, brochures, and signs. • We provide information to guests about the importance of gambling responsibly and how to recognize signs of a potential problem. • We train our employees about responsible gaming. • We emphasize to our employees that casino gaming is an adults-only activity and require them to be vigilant in preventing individuals under the legal age from playing at our casinos. • We train our employees on appropriate actions to take towards intervening in underage gambling. • We restrict the placement and content of our advertising and marketing materials to age-appropriate venues and messages. • Our responsible gaming initiatives include comprehensive policies regarding children being left unattended.
WHEN	Responsible Gaming Education Week is July 30th through 3rd .
FOR MORE INFORMATION	Contact the Human Resources Department or your supervisor if you have any questions about responsible gaming training or our responsible gaming policies.