COLOR

System

The primary colors should be used where possible. The secondary colors provide variety and a point of difference when required.

When placed over a color block or imagery, the reversed out logo would be utilized (white or black, which ever has the highest legibility).

LOGO

Argent + Trade Gothic

A combination of two inhouse fonts to create a timeless and considered word mark.

Usage Guide

When used in RGEM pieces side-by-side with other logos, the primary logo is used on the right of the lockup. Unless it appears in a partnership piece, then the partnership logo may be required to amplify AGA's presence.
